

3 PINWOOD COTTAGES, HEATHGREEN ROAD, STUDLAND
£310,000 Freehold

This inter-terraced cottage dates back to 1914 and is situated in a pleasant position near the outskirts of the village, virtually adjoining open country. It is constructed of brick with a slate roof, having concrete tiles to the rear extension.

Whilst in need of updating throughout, 3 Pinewood Cottages has the advantage of good sized family accommodation with views over heathland from the first floor.

The coastal village of Studland, the inspiration for Toytown in Enid Blyton's Noddy, lies at the South-Eastern tip of the Isle of Purbeck, approximately 9 miles from the conurbations of Poole and Bournemouth both of which have main line rail link to London Waterloo (approximately 2.5 hours). Much of the surrounding area is owned by the National Trust and is designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty including the gateway to the Jurassic Coast and World Heritage Coastline.

IMPORTANT NOTE These details should be read in conjunction with the 'What to Expect from a Corporate Sale' document, which can be downloaded along with the brochure or is available in hardcopy from our office.

The small entrance hall leads you into the good sized living room with tiled fireplace. Beyond, the kitchen has been fitted with a range of painted units, wood effect worktops, space for appliances and has ample space for a dining table. A small rear lobby leads through to the family bathroom which is fitted with a white suite; the lobby also gives access to the easily maintained rear courtyard garden.

On the first floor there are three bedrooms, two good sized doubles and a single. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious and is situated at the front of the property. Bedrooms two and three are both at the rear of the property and have views over the adjoining heathland.

The property is approached by a shared driveway. The front garden is uncultivated but there is scope to create parking, subject to consent. It is a good size, and is situated opposite the house. At the rear there is an easily maintained walled courtyard garden with gated access to pedestrian service lane. Beyond the pedestrian access is a further area of garden which is personal to no:3 and is laid to grass.
