IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll be supremely pleased at how handsome and handy your new home is, all lovingly spread over one convenient floor. You'll marvel at how innovative your space is arranged with your surprisingly spacious living room/lounge area providing you with a great space to relax after a hard day. The Design & Decor is tasteful and unpretentious, giving you plenty of freedom to add a touch of your own style. Next door is your contemporary kitchen, a marriage of style and functionality made in heaven.

Just through the archway from your lounge and you're in your gratifyingly comfortable bedroom with its built-in wardrobe, immaculate walls and ceiling all conducive to a great night's sleep. Your bathroom is delightful with white tiles and complete with fantastic fixtures and fittings.

Outside, Leyton itself is brimming with shopping options but it would be remiss of us not to point out your proximity to the limitless retail therapy options just over a mile away at Westfield Shopping Centre, Stratford which has a retail floor area of almost two million feet, making it one of the largest urban shopping centres in Europe.

WHAT ELSE?

- Drapers Field Recreation Ground is just three quarters of a mile away on foot and is full of activities to provide limitless healthy activities for kids.
- Leyton tube station, approximately a five minute walk away, is on the frequent and speedy Central Line, ferrying you into the heart of London in under half an hour.
