Property Introduction

Well presented, there are superb views from St Ives Bay through to St Agnes Beacon from the front elevation. The flexible accommodation allows for four double size bedrooms with the principal bedroom benefiting from a walk-through dressing room which is ideal for those with teenage children who may want to use this room as a study area. The triple aspect lounge, which again enjoys a coastal outlook and is some 23' in length, there is a modern fitted kitchen and in addition to a remodelled ground floor bathroom, one will find a shower room on the first floor.

To the rear is a utility room together with a boiler room/home office and a rear porch. The property is fully double glazed and heating is provided by a gas fired boiler. Sitting on a generous plot with mainly lawned gardens to the front, to the rear there is a private mature garden together with a patio and a double garage and parking.

This substantial property requires closer inspection to be fully appreciated and viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Waverley is conveniently located on the north side of the town and is set above and back from passing traffic. There is good access to both the town centre and the A30 trunk road and Cornwall's main town and administrative centre, Truro, is within commuting distance. Redruth offers a mainline railway station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England, there is a mix of local and national shopping outlets and schooling is available for all ages.

Falmouth, the university town on the south coast is within eleven miles and Portreath on the north coast which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbor can be found within five miles.
