The generous reception room boasts ample space for living and dining, creating a wonderful space for entertaining, with tall sash windows providing abundant natural light. A second reception is adjacent and both receptions feature working fireplaces. The separate kitchen is spacious and well arranged, offering excellent storage and ample room for informal dining. The principal bedroom suite features extensive fitted wardrobes and has access to an en-suite bathroom and a room that could be used flexibly as an office or dressing room. This bedroom also features a working fireplace. Two further bedrooms are served by two en-suite bathrooms, providing flexible accommodation for guests or family. A WC, utility room, and several storage areas add to the practicality of the layout.

A dedicated private parking space is located in front of the building.
