Description

A bright and spacious two bedroom ground floor apartment with private gardens set within a stunning Victorian mansion block with views across Box Hill.

Accommodation comprises a large entrance hallway with built in cupboards giving access to a double aspect sitting room, retaining many original features including the fireplace and large bay window with views across the private garden and Box Hill beyond. The spacious kitchen/dining room provides ample units and worktop space along with an area ideal for dining and entertaining. Further benefits include direct access from the kitchen to an outside terrace area. The master bedroom is an impressive room measuring 16.2"x13.4" and displays an impressive decorative wood finished ceiling which is believed to be an original feature. The second double bedroom includes built in wardrobe space and views across the garden. Both bedrooms are serviced by a family bathroom.

Externally the private garden measuring roughly 75" x 45" is mainly laid to lawn with tree lined borders. There is also a patio area ideal for entertaining and enjoying the views. Residents parking is provided within the large gravel drive and a single garage with electric door.

Situation

The property is situated in Pixham, just to the north of Dorking town, close to Denbies Vineyard and directly opposite Dorking Cricket Club.

Pixham Firs is within short walking distance of Dorking Mainline (Waterloo and Victoria) and Dorking Deepdene (Gatwick, Guildford and Reading) stations.

The historic town centre is within a 20 minute stroll. Dorking offers a well-regarded selection of national and local shops with Waitrose, Marks & Spencer, Waterstones, Cook and Fullers (for country pursuits).

The varied selection of restaurants and pubs includes the Michelin starred Sorrell and the historic and recently refurbished White Horse Hotel.

Dorking has an excellent selection of schools, including St Paul's and St Martin's primary schools, the Ashcombe and Priory secondary and sixth form schools, and Box Hill international school.

Dorking Halls is a venue for a variety of live events, and also includes a cinema. There is an adjacent sports centre with swimming pool.

The immediate area offers some of Surrey's finest walking, riding and cycling routes, with Box Hill, Leith Hill, Polesden Lacey and the Surrey Hills all close at hand.

The M25 can be accessed at junctions 8 and 9, Reigate and Leatherhead, providing links to the general motorway network. Gatwick Airport is within a 40 minute drive.
