DETAILED DESCRIPTION

This charming period mid-terrace home offers a traditional layout and fantastic potential for a buyer looking to carry out renovation/improvements. Approaching the property, a classic tiled path leads through a small walled front garden to the main entrance. The ground floor opens into a bright front lounge featuring a large bay window, a striking cast iron fireplace, and fitted alcove shelving. Beyond the central stairwell, the dining room provides a second generous reception space, complete with fitted alcove storage cupboards and a side-facing sash window.

The dining room flows naturally into a galley-style kitchen, which is fitted with white cabinetry, contrasting dark work surfaces, and a black-and-white tiled splashback. The kitchen includes a stainless steel sink, an integrated oven with a hob, and a door providing access to the rear garden. Two store cupboards are located at the very rear of the ground floor layout, offering highly useful additional storage space.

Upstairs, the property features two well-proportioned bedrooms. The front bedroom spans the full width of the house and benefits from a sash window and a built-in over-stairs storage cupboard. The second bedroom sits to the rear and provides direct access to the bathroom. The bathroom comprises a crisp white suite with a panelled bath, an overhead shower with a glass screen, a pedestal wash basin, and a WC.

Externally, the rear of the property features a fully enclosed, paved courtyard garden. This private outdoor space is enhanced by mature climbing plants, built-in corner bench seating, a small wooden store, and convenient gated rear access. Heating is provided by a gas central heating system with wall-mounted radiators visible throughout the home, and parking is available on-street.
