INTERIOR

The bungalow comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal suite with a contemporary en-suite shower room. The remaining two bedrooms are generously sized and served by a stylish family bathroom, creating flexible accommodation suitable for families, couples, or holiday use. Gas central heating ensures comfort year-round, while double-glazed windows enhance the bright, welcoming atmosphere throughout the home.

EXTERIOR

Externally, the property is complemented by a small garden to the rear, ideal for low-maintenance outdoor living, and a front decked terrace that provides the perfect vantage point to enjoy morning sun and uninterrupted sea views. To the side of the bungalow, there is a convenient parking space. The property's location within a peaceful close adds a sense of seclusion while still being within easy reach of local amenities.

Ventnor

A Victorian seaside town that has fantastic views across the English channel. Despite its relatively small size, Ventnor offers a vibrant cultural scene with the town hosting an International and Fringe Festival. Both the town and the seafront has an array of local boutiques, cafes and high end restaurants, many specialising in local seafood. An abundance of outside recreational pursuits can be found including a golf course, rugby and cricket club. There are beautiful walks to the Ventnor Downs, along the coastal path and down to the ever popular Steephill Cove.
