New Place Road, Pulborough

New Place Road, Pulborough RH20 2JD

This mature three bedroom family home has been modernised and improved to offers stylish, open plan living within easy access of all local amenities. Set back behind a high hedge and it's own front garden, the property features a lovely living / dining / kitchen with underfloor heating and integrated appliances. The bathroom has been refitted and there's a combi boiler in the loft. All three bedrooms are good sizes and there's some useful built in storage. Outside, a lovely covered decked seating area looks out across the low maintenance rear garden, with artificial turf, a couple of timber store units perfect for toys and a timber shed / garden room. Gated access to the parking behind, where there is an allocated parking space.

The pre-school and primary school are literally steps away from the property, with older children catching a bus to The Weald from a stop just down the road. There's a large recreation ground and playpark with outdoor gym over the road and the village football teams play here regularly.

There's plenty to keep an active family busy in Pulborough, including wonderful walks almost from the front door and a choice of shops, pubs, cafes and restaurants. Two supermarkets are close by, plus a medical centre, dentists and all local amenities. The mainline railway station is less than a mile away, with direct routes to London and Gatwick.
