DESCRIPTION

Awelon is a well-presented and individual detached home, designed in a split-level arrangement to make the most of its elevated position and outlook across the surrounding countryside.

The accommodation is both practical and flexible, with the main living areas positioned to take advantage of the views and natural light. The entrance hall leads through to an impressive open-plan breakfast kitchen, fitted with a range of modern units, quartz worktops and integrated appliances, centred around an island unit. Bi-fold doors open out onto the garden, and the room also benefits from underfloor heating. Underfloor heating is also offered in the separate utility room.

The living room is a particularly attractive space, with a multi-fuel burner and direct access onto a decked balcony with glass balustrade, from where the views are best appreciated. In addition, there is a separate sitting/dining room and a study, offering further flexibility depending on requirements.

There are three double bedrooms, arranged across the split levels, together with two refitted shower rooms. The layout works well and gives the house a slightly different feel to a conventional two-storey property.

Overall, the house combines a good level of internal finish with a position that is difficult to replicate locally.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached over a gravelled driveway providing parking for several vehicles and includes the benefit of an EV charging point.

The gardens extend to just under half an acre and are a real feature of the property. They include lawned areas, established planting, a small orchard and vegetable beds, all enjoying a high degree of privacy along with open views across the surrounding landscape.

SITUATION

The property is situated on a quiet lane leading towards Llynclys Common but still within easy reach of local amenities.

Oswestry is a short drive away and offers a good range of shops, schools and facilities. The A483 provides straightforward access towards Shrewsbury, Welshpool and Chester.

The surrounding area is well regarded for its countryside, with nearby access to Llynclys Common, the Montgomery Canal and a range of walking routes and bridleways with one being accessible directly outside of the property.

DIRECTIONS

From Oswestry proceed on the A483 towards Welshpool. At Llynclys crossroads turn right onto the A495 towards Llansantffraid. After approximately 0.5 miles turn left into Turners Lane and continue up the lane, where the property will be found on the left-hand side.
