Denise White Agent Comments

Mill House is a charming and characterful home offering well-proportioned living spaces, beautiful natural light, and a welcoming atmosphere throughout.

As you enter, an entrance hallway provides stair access to the first floor and leads into the main living room. This spacious and inviting room is filled with natural light, enhanced by exposed ceiling beams, and features a cosy log burner that creates a warm and homely feel, ideal in the cooler months.

From the living room, you step into the generous kitchen/dining area. With ample space and plenty of potential to develop and even extend, subject to any planning consents. Beyond the kitchen lies a snug – an ideal room for relaxing or use as a flexible living space such as a play room, study or dining room.

Upstairs, the property offers three bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a particularly good size and benefits from a small yet practical dressing room. Bedrooms two and three are both light-filled, well-proportioned rooms, making them suitable for family or guests. The family bathroom completes the first floor, featuring a modern walk-in shower and a functional layout.

Outside, Mill House enjoys a large garden that wraps around the property, providing ample outdoor space for recreation and gardening. In addition, there is generous off-road parking and a detached garage.

Overall the property offers a fabulous opportunity to purchase a stone family home set in a semi-rural location that would create a lifestyle for those seeking the features of countryside living but not being too far out from local amenities and local market towns.

Location

Mill House is set in the peaceful hamlet of Winkhill, surrounded by the rolling hills of the Staffordshire Moorlands on the edge of the Peak District. The property enjoys sweeping views across open fields, wooded valleys, and distant ridges, with beautiful walks and cycle routes right on the doorstep. The nearby River Hamps provides tranquil riverside trails, while footpaths, bridleways, and former railway lines offer endless opportunities to explore the countryside.

Despite its idyllic rural feel, the house is well placed for amenities. The market towns of Leek and Ashbourne are both close by, offering shops, schools, cafes, and restaurants, while Waterhouses provides local services and welcoming pubs. With rivers, trails, and panoramic views all around, Mill House offers a rare blend of countryside seclusion and convenient access to nearby towns.

WE WON!!!

Local Estate Agent Wins Prestigious British Gold Award for Customer Service

Denise White Bespoke Estate Agents has been honoured with the esteemed Gold Award 2024 from the British Property Awards for their exceptional customer service and extensive local marketing knowledge in Leek and its surrounding areas.

The British Property Awards, renowned for their inclusivity and comprehensive evaluation process, assess estate agents across the United Kingdom based on their customer service levels and understanding of the local market. Denise White Estate Agents demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the rigorous and independent judging period.

As part of the assessment, the British Property Awards mystery shopped 90% of estate agents nationwide, evaluating their telephone etiquette, responsiveness to emails, promptness in returning missed calls, and, crucially, their expertise in the local marketing area.

The Gold Award is a testament to the estate agents who consistently go above and beyond, delivering exceptional levels of customer service, focusing on their commitment and excellence within the local community.
