Freehold

- Period cottage within historic terrace
- Unlisted dwelling offering flexibility
- Two double bedrooms over three floors
- Highly sought after village location
- Council Tax - D
- Adjoining Grade II listed properties
- Extended kitchen/dining room with doors
- Private garden and useful outbuilding
- EPC - E

Occupying an attractive position within one of Bladon's most historic terraces, this charming two-bedroom period cottage offers a well-balanced blend of character and modern living, with convenient on-street parking available nearby. While adjoining properties within the terrace are Grade II listed, 22 Park Street is not, allowing buyers to enjoy the architectural appeal of a heritage setting with greater flexibility for future use.

Arranged over three floors, the accommodation extends to approximately 86 sq m (925 sq ft) of gross internal area, excluding the outbuilding and garden store.

The property is approached via an entrance porch opening into a characterful sitting room with fireplace and wood-burning stove. To the rear, the cottage has been thoughtfully extended to create a light-filled kitchen/dining room forming the heart of the home, with two sets of French doors providing a seamless connection to the garden. A practical utility room with W.C. is positioned off the kitchen.

The first floor provides a generous double bedroom and a well-appointed family bathroom with roll-top bath and separate shower, while the principal bedroom occupies the entire second floor, offering a spacious and private retreat. Externally, the property enjoys a private rear garden together with a useful outbuilding and garden store extending to approximately 36.7 sq m (395 sq ft).
