A stylish two bedroom apartment with private garden and excellent proportions throughout. The home enjoys private entrance and is located on the first floor with the vendors currently suited to a no onward chain property.

On approach, the private entrance can be found to the side with the garden accessed this way, also. Stairs rise to the accommodation with a spacious hall leading to all rooms.

The lounge diner is a particular well proportioned room with an L-shape and two windows amplifying light and space. Extensive floorspace compliments the living area with ample room for living and dining furnishings.

The kitchen is recently installed with sleek contemporary units providing abundant storage and preparation space. Adjacent is the shower room, finished with modern tiling and retaining shower, toilet and basin.

Both bedrooms are extremely similarly sized as double rooms with built in storage as well as offering floorspace for further furnishings.

The garden is laid to patio with a brick built shed with armored cable providing power. The patio area provides an excellent retreat for soaking up the sun or entertaining.
