DESCRIPTION

An enchanting Grade II listed village house, believed to date to the early 17th Century, rich in charm, character and originality, and lovingly cared for by the present owner for over 40 years. Situated in the very heart of the town, this exceptional period home offers generous and versatile accommodation extending to approximately 2,830 sq ft with a wealth of period features including exposed beams and magnificent inglenook fireplaces, all contributing to the warm and inviting atmosphere that defines the property. The house has clearly been a much cherished home, carefully preserved and sympathetically maintained to retain its unique personality.

The accommodation is both spacious and versatile, arranged to provide an excellent balance of formal reception rooms and comfortable everyday living spaces. The elegant drawing room is a particularly impressive principal reception room, offering generous proportions and a wonderful inglenook fireplace, while the formal dining room provides an ideal setting for entertaining. In addition, a cosy snug offers a more intimate retreat, perfect for relaxed evenings. The recently refitted contemporary kitchen provides an attractive hub for day-to-day living. Upstairs, the property continues to impress with a notably spacious landing which could readily be adapted to create a fourth bedroom, study or additional living space, (subject to any necessary consents and approvals being obtained). There are three generous double bedrooms, two of which benefit from en-suite shower rooms, together with a well-appointed family bathroom.

Outside, the property is approached via a gated driveway, offering privacy and ample off-road parking, as well as access to a detached double garage, also of a generous size. The gardens are a particular highlight of The Beehive being beautifully established and thoughtfully planted for year round interest. Mature planting creates a series of garden rooms with attractive terraces, lawned areas and secluded nooks, perfect for alfresco dining and entertaining throughout the warmer months, all with the backdrop of Lydd's historic All Saints Church.

SITUATION

Lydd is a historic and characterful town situated on the edge of the unique landscape of Romney Marsh, offering a blend of rural tranquillity and coastal charm. Often referred to as one of the original Cinque Ports, the town has a rich maritime heritage and retains a strong sense of community, centred around its striking parish church, All Saints Church, Lydd, sometimes known as the Cathedral of the Marsh.

The town provides a range of everyday amenities including independent shops, cafés, traditional pubs, doctors, dentist and a primary school, while a wider selection of facilities can be found in the nearby towns of New Romney and Rye, both within easy reach. Lydd is also well placed for access to the beautiful coastline at Camber Sands, renowned for its wide sandy beaches and popular for watersports and coastal walks. The surrounding marshland offers miles of open countryside, ideal for walking, cycling and birdwatching. Transport connections are convenient, with mainline rail services available from Ashford, providing high-speed services to London and connections to the wider rail network. Road links via the A259 also provide access along the coast and inland towards Ashford and the motorway network.
