THE DWELLING

Offering brick elevations beneath a tiled roof, this four-bedroom detached property occupies a sought-after position on the edge of the historic town of Sherborne. The house provides spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over two levels, further enhanced by a later extension above the garaging, which creates a generous principal bedroom suite with ensuite facilities.

ACCOMMODATION

An entrance porch provides a generous and practical space before entering the property. The entrance hall features a staircase rising to the rear, a cloakroom. The living room is a spacious and light filled area with a front aspect and benefits from a built-in media wall with fitted cabinetry. An opening from the living room leads onto the dining room offering solid wood parquet flooring, which continues through to provide access to the conservatory and kitchen.

The kitchen is well appointed to cater for all culinary needs, featuring shaker-style cabinetry and an integrated dishwasher. Further access is provided to the utility room, which offers additional storage and space for white goods, along with a door leading to the rear and internal access to the garage. The conservatory enjoys French doors opening to the garden, providing a pleasant connection to the outside.

The first floor offers a spacious landing. The principal bedroom, formed as a later addition to the property, provides generous accommodation and is complemented by a contemporary ensuite featuring a double walk-in shower. The remaining bedrooms benefit from built-in wardrobes and are well served by the family bathroom on this level. The landing also provides access to a useful storage cupboard and the loft.

GARDEN

To the rear, the garden offers a fully enclosed and private space, predominantly laid to lawn. A patio area sits adjacent to the property, while a decking area positioned at the rear of the garden makes the most of the available sunlight.
