“An impressive 17th century stone-built former Vicarage, divided into three residences, with this property occupying the central position. Boasting high ceilings and abundant period character, the property offers spacious, elegant living with significant charm and heritage appeal.”

- Jon, Director

A Real Retreat

From the moment you arrive, this wonderful three storey family home immediately showcases its character and charm.

Occupying the central position within an exclusive conversion of three residences, the property offers generous proportions, high ceilings and a warm, welcoming atmosphere, creating a wonderful family home that blends historic elegance with comfortable everyday living.

The Finer Details

Rich in charm and character throughout, the property combines generous proportions, high ceilings and a warm, welcoming atmosphere, creating a wonderful family home suited to both modern living and entertaining.

The ground floor accommodation has been thoughtfully arranged and comprises a well-equipped kitchen offering ample storage and workspace, alongside a spacious lounge filled with natural light. An opening leads through to the dining room, providing an ideal setting for family meals and social occasions, whilst sliding doors open onto the rear garden and further enhance the sense of space and practicality.

To the first floor, a large landing gives access to two generously sized bedrooms together with a well-appointed family bathroom. The second floor continues to impress with two further bedrooms, including a spacious master bedroom benefitting from built-in wardrobes and a private en suite shower room, creating an excellent principal suite.

Externally, the property enjoys two allocated parking spaces located within a private residents' car park, complete with the added benefit of an EV charging point. To the rear, the enclosed garden is of a particularly good size and features a lawned area, patio seating space ideal for outdoor dining, decorative shrubs and two useful storage sheds, making it a perfect space for families and entertaining alike.
