Situated in a former farming hamlet offering both peace and privacy, the property is complete with ample off road parking and various buildings.

ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is presented in good order throughout, showcasing typical features such as tiled floors, wood paneled ceilings and exposed wooden beams. Presented over split levels and with the potential to adapt for single storey living requirements, the property also has the potential to extend (STP) or incorporate other parts of the property for additional accommodation if required. A generous open plan kitchen/sitting room is accessed directly from the front of the property, with a range of fitted kitchen units and space for various white goods in both the kitchen and adjoining utility room, which couples as a workshop. A single hallway leads to both double bedrooms, serviced by a part tiled family bathroom and separate cloakroom with WC.

OUTSIDE

The property is accessed via a courtyard to the front, offering ample parking and turning space for a number of vehicles. Adjoining the property is a former stable block, sectioned into three separate stables with stable doors at the front. There is a detached stone outbuilding currently used as storage which also offers scope to incorporate into the property subject to gaining the necessary consents.
