A superb opportunity to acquire this well-positioned three-bedroom, two-bathroom detached family home, quietly nestled within a sought-after cul-de-sac in East Sheen. Boasting generous living accommodation, off-street parking, a private rear garden, and a conservatory-style extension, the property offers excellent potential for modernisation and further enhancement.

Requiring updating throughout, this home presents an exciting prospect for buyers looking to renovate and create a bespoke family residence tailored to their own tastes and requirements. Rarely available in such a desirable location, the property combines space, privacy, and significant scope to add value.

Ideally situated for a range of outstanding local schools, Mortlake railway station, the open green spaces of Richmond Park, and the excellent shops, cafés, and amenities of East Sheen and Barnes, the property is offered to the market with no onward chain.
