Beaconsfield,

The entrance hall leads to an impressive living/dining room with a large picture window overlooking the delightful garden, a central fireplace separates the living and dining areas with casement doors leading to a patio area. The kitchen/breakfast room also overlooks the rear garden and is adjacent to the family room. From the dining area stairs lead down to the lower ground floor, originally a separate annexe, which could be easily converted back. Currently comprising a home office or bedroom, sitting room with casement doors to the rear garden, bedroom five, shower room, gym and store room. There are four further bedrooms, two on the top floor with part vaulted ceilings and separate bathroom, two on the ground floor, one with an ensuite bathroom. The property is approached via a long driveway leading to a double garage. The southerly side of the house is a patio area which leads down to a further raised patio overlooking the garden. The garden is very natural in its design, with an extensive area of lawn and established trees creating a woodland dell with feature pond at the bottom. The gardens in Hampden Hill are very much open plan with the neighbours, so all can enjoy the vistas across the Conservation Area.
