Set close to the centre of the older part of the highly sought-after village of Biddenham, this rarely available detached bungalow is offered for sale for the first time since it was sold new in 1995. It is set in a quiet cul-de-sac of similar modern homes and is available with no onward chain.

The property has been extended and offers scope for further alteration, if required.

There is a commanding entrance hall, providing a spacious and free-flowing route to the accommodation.

The living room is immediately off the hallway and is a very spacious room overlooking the front elevation. There is a gas coal-effect fire, while double doors connect to an equally impressive separate dining room. An adjoining conservatory provides a further living space.

The kitchen/breakfast room is well presented, with granite worktops and a quality range of units incorporating Bosch appliances. A functional utility room provides a further useful space.

There are four bedrooms, and a separate study with fitted office furniture. The study could be redesigned to be used as a fifth bedroom if required. Two of the bedrooms have en suite facilities, either of which could be used as a master bedroom. The remaining bedrooms have use of a family bathroom.

Further benefits include a cloakroom, gas central heating, double glazing and a large loft.

Outside, the property is fully enclosed by mature hedgerows. The frontage offers extensive block-paved off-road parking, in addition to a double garage with electric doors. The secluded rear garden faces approximately south and is laid mainly to lawn.

Biddenham is a prosperous village with excellent transport links. There are three schools, a public house, and a range of sporting and social facilities nearby.
