About the property

What the owner loves:

I chose this flat because it instantly felt special: high ceilings, a bright open living space, and sunlight pouring in all day. The private garden at the back became my favourite retreat, and the nearby canal offered peaceful walks and some of my best memories here. With great transport links and beautiful parks close by, it's been a wonderful place to live.

Why we would buy this home:

This beautiful period conversion in the heart of Olde Hanwell offers a rare blend of classic Victorian charm and modern convenience, perfect for anyone looking to put down roots in a vibrant West London neighbourhood.

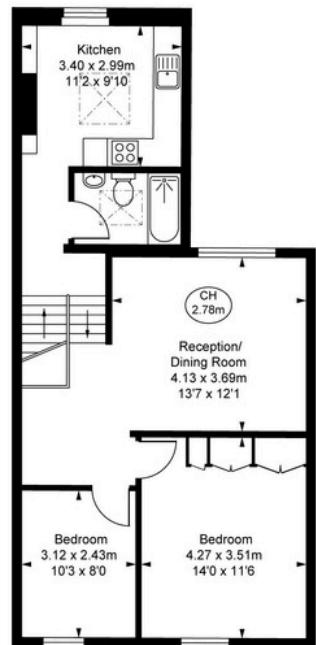

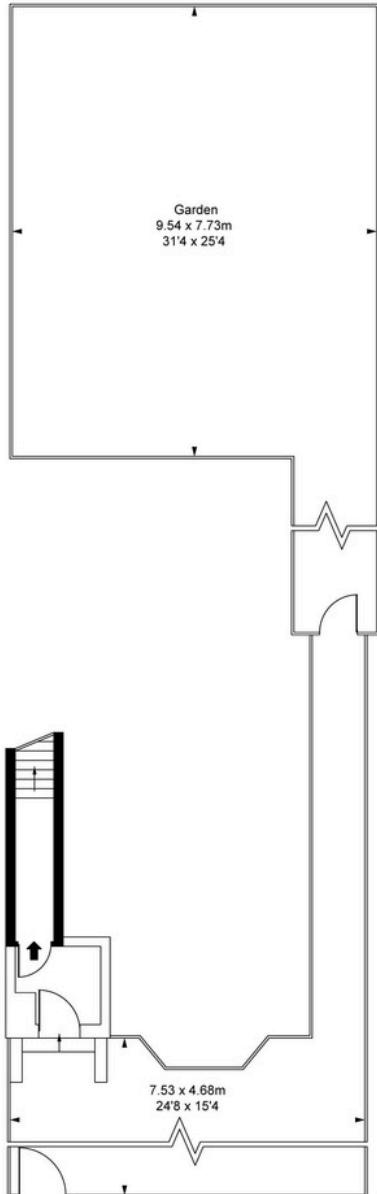

The expansive reception room is a real show-stopper - ideal for stylish living and entertaining, setting this home apart from typical apartments. With two double bedrooms and a well-equipped separate kitchen/dining room, the layout feels spacious and thoughtfully designed for everyday life. The property also comes chain-free and with a share of freehold, giving you more control and flexibility.
