Guide Price £350,000

A delightful cottage originally dating back to the early 19th century with some impressive high ceilings and period features as well as possessing a lovely warm ambience. Combining characterful accommodation with the rare advantage of a private courtyard garden/parking and useful cellar storage this wonderful home is just a short walk to the town centre from the south side of town.

This spacious property offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors. A welcoming reception hall provides access to the principal rooms and staircase, whilst the generous sitting room enjoys attractive proportions and an abundance of natural light. To the rear, the kitchen overlooks and opens onto the enclosed and extremely private courtyard garden, providing an excellent space for daily living and entertaining which can also be used for secure off road parking behind substantial double gates.

The first floor comprises three bedrooms, served by a family bathroom, with the principal bedroom occupying an impressive position to the front of the property. Bedroom two has a en-suite toilet.

Outside

A particular feature of the home is the charming enclosed courtyard garden. Screened by mature planting and high walls, the space provides a wonderful degree of privacy and a peaceful setting for outdoor dining and relaxation. In addition, a substantial cellar offers excellent storage and potential for a variety of ancillary uses. There is a parking space to the side of the property with gates in front for privacy.

Location

The property enjoys a delightful setting along a no-through road within a short stroll to the town centre. Bury St Edmunds in Suffolk is a unique and dazzling historic gem. An important market town with a richly fascinating heritage, the striking combination of medieval architecture, elegant Georgian squares and glorious Cathedral and Abbey gardens provide a distinctive visual charm. With prestigious shopping, an award-winning market, plus a variety of attractions and places to stay, Bury St Edmunds is under two hours from London and very convenient for Cambridge.
