

2 Cowridge Crescent, Luton, LU2 0LP

Situated on the ever popular Cowridge Crescent in Luton, this three bedroom semi-detached home occupies a generous corner plot, offering exceptional potential for further development.

The property itself requires full renovation throughout, making it an ideal opportunity for investors or buyers looking to create a bespoke family home. Internally, the property benefits from three well proportioned bedrooms and a traditional layout, providing a solid foundation to work from.

Externally is where this property truly stands out. The substantial corner plot offers significant scope to extend to the side and rear, with the potential for a double storey extension or even the possibility of a separate dwelling to the side (subject to the relevant planning permissions).
