Property Description

Situated on the desirable edge of Dilton Marsh and Westbury Leigh, this charming two-bedroom semi-detached property enjoys a peaceful semi-rural setting while remaining conveniently close to local amenities, transport links and countryside walks.

Occupying a particularly generous plot, the home offers excellent potential for further enhancement (subject to planning), making it an ideal purchase for first-time buyers, downsizers, or those seeking scope to extend.

The accommodation is well-proportioned and thoughtfully arranged, comprising a bright and comfortable sitting room, and a spacious kitchen/dining room — perfect for both everyday living and entertaining.

Externally, the property truly excels. To the front, there is an elevated garden area that enhances the home's attractive kerb appeal. To the rear lies a standout feature—a long and generously sized garden that stretches down to open farmland, providing a wonderful sense of space, privacy and uninterrupted rural outlooks, along with summerhouse.

The garden offers a combination of lawn, patio and potential for landscaping, gardening enthusiasts or those seeking outdoor entertaining options.
