LOCATION

Whitstable is a fashionable town situated on the Kent coast, historically famed for its oysters which are much celebrated, most notably during the annual Whitstable Oyster Festival. Whitstable supports a diverse community and the vibrant town centre boasts an array of café bars, highly regarded restaurants, boutique shops, independent galleries and the Horsebridge Arts Centre, all of which contribute to the thriving cultural scene for which the town is renowned. Just moments from the town centre you can meander through the town's historic alleyways and colourful streets of charming fisherman's cottages leading to Whitstable's beautiful coastline and working harbour with fish market. The town also enjoys good yachting and watersports facilities. Mainline railway services are available at Whitstable station (1.6 miles distant), offering fast and frequent services to London (Victoria approximately 80mins) with high speed links to London St Pancras (approximately 73mins) and the A299 is also easily accessible linking with the A2/ M2 providing access to the channel ports and subsequent motorway network. The Cathedral City of Canterbury (approximately 5 miles distant) offers theatres, cultural and leisure amenities, as well as benefiting from excellent public and state schools. The City also boasts the facilities of a major shopping centre enjoying a range of mainstream retail outlets as well as many individual and designer shops. The High Speed Rail Link (Javelin Service) from Canterbury West provides frequent services to London St Pancras with a journey time of approximately 54mins.
