121 Torrington Crescent, Wellingborough, NN8 5ET

A smartly presented and extended, 1970's built 3 bedroom semi-detached family home, positioned to the north of the town, on the established residential estate of Vicarage Farm.

Featuring a stylish, refitted kitchen with stone work tops, UPVC double glazing and gas central heating; the house offers well proportioned accommodation consisting of an entrance porch, generous lounge, kitchen opening onto the dining room, 3 bedrooms and bathroom suite that is due to be upgraded by the middle of May. Outside there is a smartly paved driveway providing off road parking for several vehicles, EV charging point and a longer than normal garage with roller door.

Torrington Crescent has long been one of the more popular estates in the town, being well placed for a range of amenities including Kilborn Park, the sought after Redwell Primary School, a parade of shops, Redwell leisure centre and doctors surgery. The house is a just over a miles from the town centre, whilst Wellingborough train station (providing a service to London St Pancras in under 50 minutes) is approximately 2 miles.

Ideal for a first time buyer, commuter or someone 'starting over', a viewing is recommended to fully appreciate all that the house has on offer.
