64 Caellepa is an ideal four-bedroom house share situated behind Bangor's main high street. Spread over four floors this spacious property has a lot to offer potential tenants, with each of the four bedrooms being bright and well-lit and the attic bedroom providing views across the cityscape. The bathroom comes equipped with a toilet, sink and bathtub with an overhead shower, whilst the kitchen is large and practical containing a washing machine, fridge freezer and oven. This property contains two great communal areas; one being the dining room with a large dining table and chairs, and the other being a quiet living room with a comfy sofa and armchair. Being so close to the main high street means being minutes away from some of the best shops, restaurants, cafes and pubs in the city. In addition to this, many University buildings are within close walking distance.
