14 Box Road Avenue, Cam, GL11 5DN

Located on Box Road Avenue in the village of Cam, this detached period family home, constructed in 1936, presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a spacious family home. Owned by the current vendor for over 40 years, the property boasts an entrance porch that leads into a generous hallway, setting the tone for the rest of the home.

The lounge is a particularly inviting space, featuring an open fire and a lovely bay window that fills the room with natural light. This area seamlessly flows into the kitchen and dining area, making it perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. The dining area further extends into the conservatory, which offers views of the expansive rear garden through its French doors.

Upstairs, you will find three well-proportioned bedrooms, complemented by a bathroom that includes a convenient shower cubicle. This layout is ideal for families or those looking for extra space.

Outside, the property is equally impressive. The front is paved, providing parking for up to three cars, with additional driveway parking for several cars leading to a detached garage. The substantial rear garden, approx. 100ft, is a true highlight, featuring an abundance of established plants and trees, creating a serene outdoor retreat. There are two garden sheds, a greenhouse and a summer house with power to enjoy the garden views.

This home not only offers comfortable living but also presents the exciting potential for extension, subject to the necessary consents. With its charming features and generous outdoor space, this property is a must-see for anyone looking to settle into a village community.

Conveniently located on the outskirts of Cam, Box Road Avenue is easily accessible to Cam village amenities and local schools. The property is conveniently positioned for the A38 and M5 for those commuting to the larger centres of Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham and there is also a mainline train station, a short stroll away, with services to Bristol, Gloucester and London (Paddington).
