Lead In

Ackworth Road is a stunning six-bedroom detached period residence occupying a prominent position within one of the most sought-after areas of Featherstone, overlooking the beautiful surroundings of Purston Park. Currently operating as a guest house, the property was originally a substantial family home and continues to offer an abundance of spacious and versatile living accommodation set across three impressive floors.

This unique traditional home has been modernised to an exceptionally high standard throughout whilst carefully retaining many original character features and period charm. The spacious layout includes several reception rooms together with generously sized bedrooms, many benefiting from ensuite facilities, making the property ideal for a variety of uses including continued guest accommodation or large family living.

Properties of this style and stature rarely come to the market within this area, and Glencoe truly represents everything a buyer could wish for in a distinctive detached residence. Located close to well regarded schools and within easy reach of Featherstone Town Centre offering a range of amenities and a train station with excellent commuter links, this property must be viewed to fully appreciate the size, character and quality on offer.
