THE PROPERTY

The front door opens directly into a generous living room, which provides an inviting principal reception space with a sash-style window to the front elevation and a recessed fireplace forming a natural focal point. The room offers ample space for both sitting and occasional dining furniture, whilst an opening to the rear creates an easy flow into the adjoining kitchen/breakfast room.

The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units with work surfaces over, incorporating an inset sink and space for a range of appliances. There is sufficient room for a breakfast or dining table, whilst a rear-facing window and external door provide good natural light and direct access to the courtyard. The staircase rises from this part of the house to the first-floor accommodation.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom is particularly well proportioned and benefits from a front-facing sash-style window. The second bedroom is positioned to the rear and would suit use as a guest bedroom, child's room or home office. The accommodation is completed by a bathroom fitted with a modern white suite including bath with shower over, wash basin and WC.

OUTSIDE

To the rear of the property is a compact enclosed courtyard, offering a practical and low-maintenance outside space. The courtyard provides sufficient room for a small table and chairs and is well suited to outdoor dining or simply sitting out during the warmer months.

A pedestrian gate leads from the courtyard towards the rear access, where the property benefits from off-road driveway parking. This is an especially useful feature for a centrally positioned period cottage and adds considerably to the practicality of the home. The rear setting is enclosed by a mixture of brick walling and neighbouring buildings, creating a private and sheltered feel.

The property is said to be of freehold tenure and vacant possession will be granted upon completion.
