Forming part of one of the most distinctive industrial heritage sites in the Southwell area, The Old Silk Mill is a beautiful red-brick and pantile-roofed building that has been sympathetically converted into six individual properties.

We are delighted to bring to the market No. 22 The Old Silk Mill, a ground-floor duplex apartment which, upon entering, immediately feels more akin to a traditional cottage than a conventional apartment.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor and a door leading into the cosy lounge. To the rear is a dining kitchen with direct access onto the communal gardens. The first floor offers two bedrooms together with a bathroom.

A particular feature of this property is the additional office/store room located on a separate floor within the building, providing useful extra space for home working, hobbies or storage. The setting is truly delightful. This small hamlet lies on the edge of Southwell and No. 22 benefits from stunning communal gardens to the rear, for the exclusive enjoyment of the residents of the six properties within The Old Silk Mill. In addition, the property benefits from allocated parking towards the front.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, charm and individuality of this unique home.
