FOUR DOUBLE BEDROOM CHARACTER TOWNHOUSE WITH VERSATILITY TO THE LAYOUT IN THIS VIBRANT TOWN THAT HAS SO MUCH TO OFFER BY THE WAY OF COUNTRYSIDE, PUBS AND RESTAURANTS AND LOCAL SHOPPING

A character 4 double bed roomed townhouse both close to the town centre and to one of the main reasons for choosing Sturminster Newton - the beautiful surrounding countryside. The property retains character features such as original sash windows, Grade 2 listed frontage, exposed beams and rafters.

The layout is flexible and one of the bedrooms could become another living room to compliment the ground floor living room. The exterior of the property was re-painted just before Christmas last year and the interior has been redecorated over the course of the last 4 years. The owner has had to move away from the area and has completed on his forward purchase.

The townhouse has over 1,400 sq ft of accommodation and needs to be viewed to understand any potential for change. The location and what Sturminster Newton offers in the way of lifestyle, walks, dog walks, lovely pubs and restaurants and a vibrant town centre, makes this a value for money purchase either as a home or a weekend retreat.

AREA DESCRIPTION

Sturminster Newton, sat on the River Stour, is all you can hope for in a Dorset countryside location.....fantastic walks, great country pubs, access to local produce.

Where to start? The pubs and restaurants: The White Horse Inn in town with a 4.8 on Tripadvisor-warm atmosphere, hearty pub meals and local charm-CAMRA listed. Plumber Manor, 4.7 on Tripadvisor, for treat meals and another CAMRA listed pub is the White Hart Alehouse. The Japanese/Chinese restaurant in the town is highly rated.

The trails locally are renown. Choose from the Sturminster Newton Walkabouts including historic sites, the North Dorset Trailway, The Fiddleford Circular which takes you past heritage ruins, The Stour Valley Way Section which follows the river and Butts Pond Meadows which takes you through ancient woodland.

For more exercise, there is the Marnhull Tennis Club, golf at Sherborne or Rushmore Golf Clubs, Sturfit Gym and fitness classes, Marnhull Recreation Ground (football, cricket, tennis courts) and the well known off-road Mountain biking centre at Child Okeford. More culturally the Exchange Theatre and Arts Centre attracts West End productions.

For groceries the Co-Op is on Lower Market Street and Dike & Son is in close by Stalbridge which is an independent supermarket specialising in local produce. Plus there is the traditional market every Monday and the country market every Tuesday. Oxfords bakery in the town is considered special and Harts of Stur department store has a wide reputation. Make sure you visit local deli and vegetable stores: Olives Et Al, Root & Vine and Holbrooks, all in the town.

If you have children of school age, at primary level there is the William Barnes Primary School or St Gregory's C of E. At secondary level Sturminster Newton High School. All are well thought of and have achieved Ofsted good ratings.

The quickest connection out is the A303 for access to the UK motorway network. Or by train Templecombe and Gillingham stations are 15/20 minutes away by car and from there London is 2 hours away.

Sturminster Newton is the perfect countryside village.
