£260,000

A characterful early 17th century cottage in a picturesque village just 2.5 miles from Easingwold and only 15 miles north of York. Offered with no onward chain and boasting a wealth of original features the property includes a sitting room with open fire, dining kitchen with wood burning stove, 2 bedrooms and a bathroom complemented by pretty front and rear gardens.

Believed to date from around 1617, this charming cottage occupies a delightful position on Low Street in the historic village of Husthwaite, nestled on the edge of the Hambleton Hills and within easy reach of the North York Moors National Park.

A welcoming sitting room with stripped and varnished floorboards immediately showcases the property's wealth of character. A cast iron period open fireplace creates a wonderful focal point while an ornate staircase, useful storage cupboard and deep silled window overlooking the front garden further enhance its appeal.

A stripped pine period door leads through to the spacious dining kitchen where varnished floorboards continue and a striking fireplace with a wood burning stove provides warmth and character. The kitchen offers generous worktop space, an excellent range of storage units and integrated appliances including an electric hob and oven, fridge and separate freezer all complemented by this room having direct access out into the rear garden.

Further benefits include sash style double glazing and a combination of night storage heating together with a solid fuel fired radiator system supplied by the wood burning stove and a back boiler.

Outside, parking is available on the street while the attractive front garden is enclosed and features a gated pathway leading to the front door.

The private walled rear garden enjoys a delightful wooded backdrop and offers a stone flagged patio, covered seating area, small lawn and a flowerbed. A rear gate provides convenient access onto a service lane for wheelie bins.
