THE HUNTINGTON

This four bedroom detached, front-to-earth home is the largest in the Richard Lloyd collection. Spanning over three-storeys, this 1,671sq ft unique home offers two spacious living areas with relaxing rural views and a generous garden.

The Huntington has a modern but practical open plan kitchen/dining space, utility and boot room. The sizeable master bedroom benefits from a walk-in dressing area and private en-suite

Uplands, a stunning and exclusive new development in Hadfield Glossop. Enjoy the views of the rolling Derbyshire countryside whilst benefitting from easy access to Glossop town centre and railway links to Manchester City Centre.

Sitting on the border of the Peak District National Park, the location is ideal for those who wish to enjoy a rural setting whilst having easy access for commuting, socialising and to every day conveniences. Its also ideal for families too with good primary and secondary schools within walking distance.

Woolley Bridge provides ready access to commuter links with the nearby centre of Hadfield offering shops for most day-to-day needs. With a direct rail service to Manchester Piccadilly, it really makes it an ideal choice for the commuter. For the young family there is a nearby primary and secondary school and for those keen on outdoor pursuits the Trans Pennine trail is literally on the doorstep.

Direct access to the Trans Pennine Trail and the newly approved Mottram bypass.
