

16 ACHAPHUBIL | BY FORT WILLIAM | PH33 7AL

GUIDE PRICE: £160,000 (50% SHARE)

Situated on the shores of Loch Eil and enjoying panoramic views across to the surrounding hills, 16 Achaphubil forms a desirable semi-detached dwellinghouse, set in generous garden grounds. In excellent order throughout and benefiting from double glazing and oil fired central heating, this well presented property offers deceptively spacious accommodation, conveniently arranged over two levels. The property comprises a welcoming entrance hallway, dual-aspect lounge/diner with open fire, modern bright kitchen, and a bathroom all on the ground floor, whilst two double bedrooms, both with direct loch views, are all located on the first floor. In addition to this attractive property, the garden grounds offer a fantastic external space, with a large shed included in the sale. Due to the size, location, and conditions of the shared sake, the property would be ideally suited as a first time buyers home.

Please note: Prospective purchasers must apply to Lochaber Housing for approval to become a shared owner in the property. Application details can be found at: www.lochaberhousing.org.uk/ownership or by contacting them on 01397 70 2530.

Achaphubil is a small crofting township situated across Loch Eil from Corpach, with high schools in Strontian - some 27 miles away - or Fort William. Fort William can be reached by road (22 miles), or by means of a passenger ferry, from nearby Treslaig. There is also a daily bus service direct to Fort William from Achaphubil.
