LOCATION

Westonzoyland is a vibrant and well-served village, home to a popular primary school and pre-school, the historic 13th-century St Mary's Church, the welcoming Sedgemoor Inn, a convenient grocery store and a weekly chip van on Thursdays. The village hall provides a hub for community events, while the nearby Westonzoyland Flying Club offers a unique local attraction for microlight enthusiasts. Steeped in history, the village is also renowned as the site of the Battle of Sedgemoor — the last major battle fought on English soil.

Just a few miles away lies the bustling market town of Bridgwater, offering an extensive range of retail, educational and leisure facilities. Bridgwater Bus Station provides regular services to Taunton along with a daily route to London Hammersmith, and the town's railway station offers mainline connections for convenient travel further afield.
