SITUATION

This charming cottage enjoys a peaceful rural setting surrounded by open countryside, just 1.5 miles from Newton St Cyres. The village offers everyday amenities including a pub, Italian restaurant, primary school, community clubs, and a railway station with links to Exeter and Barnstaple.

Despite its tranquil feel, the property has excellent access to the A377, offering quick connections to Exeter and Crediton. Exeter provides a wide range of shops, eateries, and cultural attractions, along with strong transport links via the M5, A30, A38, and mainline rail to London Paddington.

DESCRIPTION

This characterful red-brick cottage presents a wonderful opportunity for purchasers seeking a home to modernise and improve. Occupying a quiet no-through road, the property is perfectly suited for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. It is complemented by a generous south-facing garden extending to approximately 110ft, with lovely views over neighbouring farmland.

The garden, which has recently been enclosed with post and rail fencing, provides ample space for landscaping and offers a small wildlife pond, an original greenhouse and a timber garden shed (both requiring refurbishment). At the front of the cottage, a private courtyard houses an old gardener's WC, outside store, and the oil tank. To the side of the property is a private parking area with space for two to three vehicles.

ACCOMMODATION

Accessed via a side gate into the courtyard, the front door opens to the kitchen with space for additional units and white goods. There's a pantry housing the Grant boiler and an understairs cupboard for storage. A large front window brings in plenty of natural light.

The sitting room is has a central fireplace, built-in storage, and wide rear window overlooking the garden and countryside. A door leads to a rear porch with direct access to parking and the garden. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Bedroom 1 enjoys rural views to the rear, Bedroom 2 features a Victorian fireplace, and Bedroom 3 is a single room. The bathroom includes a panelled bath, WC, and wash basin.

OUTSIDE

The rear garden is a particular feature of the property, measuring approximately 110ft in length and enjoying a southerly aspect. A variety of trees and mature shrubs at the far end provide a good degree of privacy, and the space offers great potential for keen gardeners. To the front, the private courtyard provides space for storage and services, while the gravelled side area offers excellent off-road parking.

SERVICES

Utilities - Mains electricity and water. Private drainage. Oil-fired central heating.

DIRECTIONS

From Exeter City Centre, leave on the A377 towards CREDITON, continuing through the suburb of Alphington and out into the Devon countryside. Travel through Newton St Cyres village, passing Quicke's Farm. After approximately 1.2 miles beyond the village centre, you will arrive at a bus stop on the left—immediately after this, turn left onto a narrow lane.

Follow this lane as it bends around to the right, where you will find a row of cottages on your left. No?1 Dunscombe Cottages is the first property on that side—look for the red-brick façade and cottage-style front.
