TOWN & VILLAGE HOMES

NO THROUGH CUL-DE-SAC LOTS OF POTENTIAL TANDEM LENGTH GARAGE

THE PROPERTY

This interesting and individual detached property dates from 1972 and provides flexible and versatile three or four bedroom accommodation. Three bedrooms are to be found upstairs with the master having a large closet that has the potential for an suite, which has been plumbed, but not fitted. There is also a refitted family bathroom.

On the ground floor, the large sitting room is complemented by a dining room and fitted kitchen/breakfast room. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a family room or fourth bedroom, a shower room and a compact laundry. The house benefits from sealed unit double-glazing and gas fired central heating.

The house occupies a plot measuring some 100' by 33' (30.3m x 10m) overall. The front garden is separated from the road by a hedge and laid to lawn with herbaceous beds and borders and ornamental shrubs. The tarmac drive provides good off-street parking and leads to the tandem garage.

A side way leads to the rear garden, which enjoys a high degree of privacy and is laid to split-level lawns with paved patio and herbaceous borders.

THE LOCATION

Bell Acre is a very pleasant residential close enjoying a convenient location in the favoured Lordship area on the south side of the town. It is only a mile from the town centre and a mile and a quarter from the mainline railway station. Letchworth Garden City is on the Cambridge to London Kings Cross train line with the fastest service to London Kings Cross taking just 28 minutes and Cambridge 26 minutes away in the other direction. Junction 9 on the A1 (M) is just under a mile away by car.

Designed in the early 20th Century to combine the benefits of town and country, Letchworth Garden City was the world's first example of this concept and succeeds to this day in achieving its aim. The town provides excellent schools, shops, green open spaces and leisure facilities. The highly regarded Lordship Farm JMI School is just half a mile away.

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

A restrictive covenant is a clause in an agreement that restricts, limits, prohibits, or restricts how owners can use a property. These could include: property use (e.g., business and rental use), the number and type of vehicles allowed on the property, fence height and type, removal of trees, paint colours for the front door or garage, installation of satellite dishes and even types of animals allowed at the property. For more information, please ask the agent.

EASEMENTS

Having an easement on your property means that a third party (an individual or a utility company for example) has a right to use your property for a particular purpose. This could be passing by foot or with vehicles over your property, or a right to pass service media for utilities on, over or under your property. An easement could also allow a neighbour to access your property in order to carry out repairs to their own property. For more information, please ask the agent.

FLOODING

Properties can be at risk of flooding and it is important for you to check if the property has been flooded in the last 5 years, what flood defences are in place and source of any flooding. For more information, please ask the agent.
