For Sale Freehold Offers In The Region Of £219,950

Situated in the sought after town of Horbury with no chain is this well presented two bedroom end terrace property. Offering generous reception space, off road parking and an attractive enclosed rear garden, this appealing home is ideal for a range of buyers.

The accommodation briefly comprises a living room with feature multi fuel burning stove and access to an inner hallway. From here, stairs lead to the first floor and there is access to the kitchen diner, which in turn opens onto the rear garden and provides access down to the cellar. The cellar has been converted to create a useful utility room. To the first floor are two well proportioned bedrooms, both benefitting from fitted wardrobes, together with the house bathroom. Externally, to the front is a low maintenance block paved driveway providing off road parking for one to two vehicles, with walling to one side, hedging to the other and side access leading to the rear garden. The rear garden is landscaped and arranged over two tiers. The upper tier features a stone paved patio area, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, whilst the lower tier is predominantly laid to lawn with planted borders incorporating mature trees, shrubs and flowers, together with railway sleeper edging. A paved pathway leads towards the rear of the garden, where there is a further paved patio area and space for a timber garden shed. The garden is fully enclosed by timber fencing, making it ideal for both children and pets.

Horbury is a popular location for a range of buyers, including first time buyers, professional couples and those looking to downsize. Local shops, schools and well regarded public houses are all within walking distance, particularly along Horbury High Street. Regular bus services operate nearby, whilst Wakefield city centre provides mainline railway connections to Leeds, Manchester and London. The M1 motorway network is also only a short drive away, making the property particularly convenient for those travelling further afield.

Only a full internal inspection will truly reveal everything this attractive home has to offer. An early viewing is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
