The Property

Situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in the popular Norfolk village of Feltwell, this spacious five-bedroom semi-detached family home offers flexible accommodation, a generous garden plot, plenty of parking and an attached double garage.

Located on Addison Close, the property is well placed for village life, with local schools, everyday amenities and a doctors surgery nearby. Feltwell is a well-served village with a welcoming community feel, making this an ideal setting for families looking to upsize.

The home has been extended to create a modern and practical layout, with a light and airy feel throughout. The main living space is a real highlight, offering an open-plan flow between the kitchen/diner and lounge. This creates a sociable family area, perfect for day-to-day living, entertaining guests and spending time together. The kitchen/dining area provides excellent space for family meals, while the lounge offers a comfortable place to relax.

In addition to the five bedrooms, the property also benefits from a separate study, ideal for home working, a playroom or hobby room. Subject to any necessary permissions and works, the study could potentially be converted into a bathroom, giving further flexibility to suit a growing household.

Outside, the property enjoys a large garden plot, offering great space for children, pets, outdoor dining and entertaining. The end-of-cul-de-sac position adds to the appeal, giving the home a tucked-away feel while still being close to village facilities. To the front, there is plenty of parking, along with an attached double garage providing further storage, parking or workshop potential.
