IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step through the front door and the house opens out in a way that feels both practical and inviting. At the front, the first reception room is bright and comfortable, with a bay window, soft tones and plenty of room to settle in. Beyond that, a second reception gives you more flexible living space, whether for dining, working or long, slow weekends at home. To the rear, the galley kitchen is neatly arranged and leads straight out to the landscaped garden, while a downstairs WC adds a useful extra touch for everyday life.

Upstairs, the two bedrooms are calm and well proportioned, with the larger room spanning the full width of the house to the front. The Jack and Jill bathroom sits on this floor, giving the layout a practical, considered feel that works especially well in a home of this size. Outside, the rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped, with planting and seating space that make it feel like a natural extension of the house in the warmer months.

WHAT ELSE?

You are in the much loved Forest Gate Lanes, known for its handsome Victorian streets and strong sense of community. Wanstead Flats is close by for walks, runs, weekend picnics and a little breathing space. Forest Gate station is within easy reach, making journeys into the City and beyond pleasingly straightforward. The area is full of well liked local spots, with cafes, pubs and handy amenities all nearby.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We've really enjoyed our time in Forest Gate - great local amenities nearby including Wild Goose Bakery and Joyau wine bar, and amazing outdoor green space with Wanstead Flats. The Elizabeth line nearby means you can be in central London in half an hour."
