Description

To the front of the property is a gravel driveway with parking for up to 2 cars, along with a block paved pathway leading to the front door. On entering you are welcomed by a spacious hallway, leading firstly to the snug. A cosy separate living space well lit with a bay window and complete with fitted cupboards providing ample storage. Next is the utility room with an integrated washing machine, dryer and toilet with a hand basin. To the rear of the property is the large open plan kitchen living space, fitted with a modern kitchen, island and banquette seating; offering the full package for daily life and hosting alike. Adjoining the kitchen is the open plan secondary living space with an original fireplace. The garden is accessed via a large sliding door from the kitchen leading out to a well proportioned patio, lawned area and lounge area finished with bark chippings, ideal for children playing. Externally there is also a large detached garage and side access via a secure cedar clad gate.

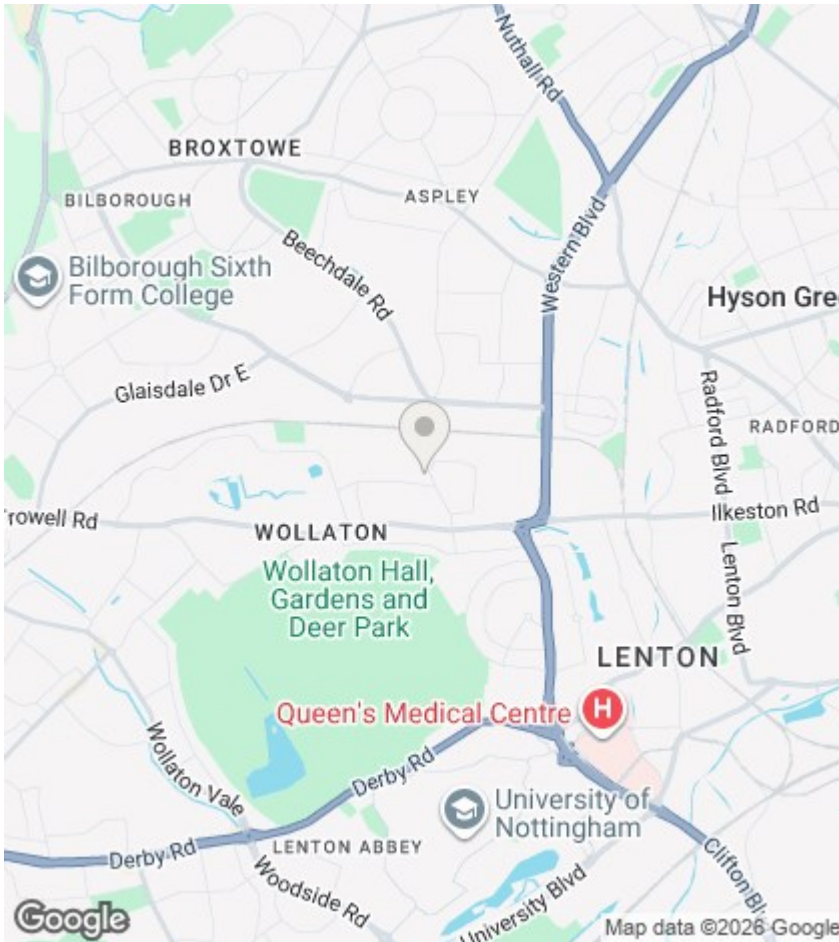

To the first floor the property boasts a luxury bathroom with an open walk-in shower, semi-freestanding bath and fitted toilet / sink unit. Two large double bedrooms, the front of which with a large bay window and a single bedroom. The landing is well lit with a large window at the top of the stairs.

Local amenities include the Wollaton pub & kitchen, Co-op, Bluecoat Wollaton Academy school, Middleton Primary school & Wollaton park all within walking distance. There are 2 bus routes within a short walk, one direct to the city centre and the other to both QMC and City hospitals. Perfect for professionals seeking easy access to the city.

Overall this is a rare opportunity to purchase a perfectly refurbished modern family home in a sought after location. Early viewing is highly recommended
