Standing on a lovely plot is this light detached family home in the well sought after and established Brizlincote Valley being well placed for schools. With two reception rooms, breakfast kitchen plus a utility, four bedrooms, en-suite, bathroom, wide drive and good size gardens.

John German

Set in a lovely and popular location this detached family home is well placed for schools, green spaces and walks together with a Tesco convenience store and pubs just a walk away.

To the front there is a double drive offering ample parking and a single integral garage which is also ideal as a workshop/hobby or storage space or even the potential subject to permissions to create more living space.

The hall provides a welcoming entrance with stairs and doors leading off. The lounge has a bay window framing views to front, a fireplace adding a focal point and double doors linking to the dining room with in turn has patio doors opening out to the rear gardens.

The 'L' shape breakfast kitchen is fitted with a range of units, an integrated oven and hob, space for a breakfast table and windows framing garden views. There is also a handy utility room with additional appliance space and a door to the side access.

On the first floor there are four bedrooms, a large master with en-suite, bedrooms two and three are both doubles along with a good size fourth bedroom which could also make a home office. Completing first floor is the family bathroom.

The beautifully maintained rear garden is a good size featuring a paved patio area with adjacent shaped lawn and steps down to a slightly lower lawn all surrounded by abundantly stocked and established display beds and borders. A handy side gate provides access to the front.
