Greendale Road, Bedminster, Bristol, BS3 5EW

We are proud to offer to the market this two bedroom semi detached homes sitting a short stroll from Victoria Park. Whilst the property requires modernisation its sure to prove perfect for any family looking for a property with bucket loads of potential in this superb location.

Internally the ground floor has been opened up to offer a dual aspect living space, with access to the kitchen which in turn boasts a view over the garden and uPVC door to the side. Moving upstairs there are two double bedrooms and three piece bathroom, whilst access to the loft is on the landing. Perhaps the standout feature of this property is the outside space, to the front there is off street parking via a hardstand, whilst the rear garden is a great space and faces south, making most of the all day sun, currently its a blank canvass but offers the opportunity to create something unique due to its size.

Greendale Road is an area popular with first time buyers & young families due to its proximity to victoria park and its sought after primary school. For those requiring access links there are various bus routes on St Johns Lane, whilst Temple Meads station sits a 20 minute walk away.
