SITUATION

The land is situated in an accessible location, within the parish of East Worlington in North Devon and a short distance from Gidley Cross on the B3137 which links Witheridge and South Molton. Access to the A361 (North Devon Link Road) at Moortown Cross is 4.9 miles to the north-east and from here the market town of Tiverton and the M5 are accessible.

The small village of Meshaw is 2.1 miles to the north and the larger village of Witheridge is 3.7 miles to the south-east. The market town of South Molton which has a weekly livestock market is 7.5 miles to the north.

DESCRIPTION

The land comprises a mixed block of level and gently sloping grass land, together with some rush pasture and culm grass land which runs down to a stream known as Huntacott Water on the northern boundary. In total the land extends to 56.39 acres (22.82 hectares) and lies at about 200 metres above sea level.

There are eleven enclosures in total and the roadside fields are productive and have been used for grazing and hay and silage production. One of these fields includes an historic burial mound (tumuli). The lower (northern) fields are more suited to grazing and include some rush pasture and culm grassland which is suitable for summer grazing.

The soils are described as slowly permeable seasonally wet acid loamy and clayey soils and the land is classified as Grade 4.

ACCESS

There is direct access to the public highway which forms the southern boundary.

SERVICES

There is a mains water supply (metered) connected.

METHOD OF SALE

The land is offered for sale by private treaty, as one lot.
