14 Roland Street

St. Albans, Hertfordshire AL1 5HS

A traditional bay fronted 1930's three bedroom semi-detached house in a sought after street in the Fleetville area of St Albans. The property is attractively presented throughout and offers excellent scope to extend to the rear and into the loft space (subject to planning/building regulations).

The accommodation begins with a covered entrance porch with a part glazed front door into a welcoming hallway. There are stairs to the first floor with a storage cupboard below. The spacious lounge has a bay window to the front and an attractive fireplace with a real flame gas fire. The kitchen/diner provides a bright open plan space with a period style fireplace and sliding patio doors to the rear garden. The kitchen provides a range of cream coloured wall and base units with ample counter tops above, recesses for white goods and a built-in storage cupboard.

The first floor landing has a window to the side, hatch to the loft and doors to rooms. There are three bedrooms with fitted wardrobes in two of the bedrooms and a modern white bathroom suite incorporating a bath with shower above, basin with storage below and W.C.

Externally there is a block paved driveway to the front providing off street car parking with established hedges to each side. The 50ft west facing rear garden has a paved patio area which leads to a lawn with a flower bed borders and a further paved patio to the rear and a wooden storage shed.

Roland Street is ideally located within walking distance of the mainline train station, a number of popular local primary schools including Fleetville Infants & Juniors, two local parks and all of the local shops and services in Fleetville including a Post Office and Morrisons supermarket.
