INTRODUCTION

No' 4 Anderson Drive occupies a central position within a popular residential area of Castle Douglas close to the thriving high street, local parks, primary & secondary schools, etc. The property has been greatly improved within the current ownership presented as a lovely family home, incorporating all features for family day living. The accommodation is set over two floors incorporating a lounge, kitchen / diner, four bedrooms and a family bathroom. There is off-road parking on the driveway and an enclosed patio garden to the rear. All radiators are relatively new with the heating system currently managed with a Hive heating hub.

Castle Douglas high street, known as "The Food Town." The town offers a full range of amenities, including leisure facilities, health services, professional services and supermarkets. The high street is especially renowned for its variety of traditional shops, including butchers, bakers, grocers and craft outlets. Both primary and secondary education are available locally. Castle Douglas and the surrounding area also host a variety of community-run annual events, such as Civic Week and the Soapbox Derby.

Communications to the area are good with the property situated in close proximity to the A75 Euro Route, which provides quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. Ferry links to Northern Ireland can be found at Cairnryan (58 miles). Domestic and international flights can be found at Prestwick Airport (54 miles) and Glasgow International Airport (89 miles). There are mainline railway stations at both Dumfries (18 miles) and Lockerbie (31 miles), which run a full timetable both north and south.

This part of Southwest Scotland boasts one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes in the country, ranging from the moorlands of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of its distinctive coastline. Kirkcudbrightshire is a predominantly rural county, where agriculture and tourism form the backbone of the local economy. The region has remained largely untouched by modern industry, preserving its natural charm.

Outdoor and sporting activities are exceptionally well catered for, with abundant opportunities for shooting and fishing in the local area. The diverse landscape, combined with the proximity to the coast and nearby lochs, offers excellent walking, sailing, and cycling routes. Golfers are also well served, with a wide choice of high-quality local courses to enjoy.

METHOD OF SALE

The property is offered for sale by Private Treaty.
