The Charterhouse

Cockington Lane, Torquay, Devon, TQ2 6QT

A magnificent Edwardian coastal residence, currently operating as an elegant period hotel with planning consent to be used as a private residential house, offering an enviable lifestyle in the heart of The English Riviera

Elegant Detached Villa of Considerable Character and Stature
Extensive and Versatile Accommodation Extending Over Several Floors
Heated Outdoor Swimming Pool, Private Terraces and Mature Landscaped Gardens
Less than 100 Metres from Livermead Beach and The South West Coast Path

LOCATION

The Charterhouse occupies a prestigious position within one of Torquay's most desirable residential and tourism locations, situated in the sought-after Livermead area of the English Riviera. Renowned for its attractive Victorian villas, coastal setting and excellent amenities, the area remains highly popular with both residents and visitors alike. The property is located less than 100 metres from Livermead Beach and the picturesque seafront promenade, which extends along the coastline towards Torquay Harbour and Paignton.

The nearby waterfront provides an array of leisure opportunities including coastal walks, watersports, cafés, restaurants and beachside amenities, whilst offering spectacular views across Torbay.

Also, within easy walking distance is the renowned Cockington Country Park and historic village of Cockington, one of South Devon's most cherished destinations. Set within hundreds of acres of beautiful parkland, woodland and lakes, Cockington offers an idyllic setting for walking, cycling and outdoor recreation, together with a collection of artisan workshops, tea rooms and the historic manor house.

Torquay town centre, marina and harbour are all readily accessible and provide an extensive range of shopping, dining and recreational facilities. The area benefits from excellent transport links, with Torquay Railway Station within walking distance offering direct services to Exeter, Bristol and London Paddington. The South Devon Link Road also provides convenient access to Exeter, the M5 motorway network and the wider South West.

The property's enviable location combines the tranquillity of a quality residential setting with easy access to the beaches, coastline and attractions that have established Torquay as one of the South West's premier coastal destinations.
