Friary View, Sandford Street, Lichfield - City Centre Location

£190,000

1 1 1

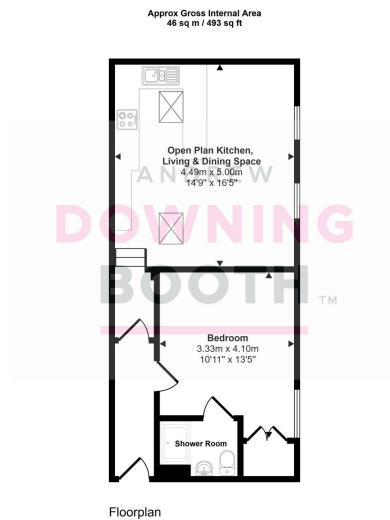

A beautifully styled and high-quality one bedroom apartment, ideally situated in the heart of Lichfield's vibrant and historic city centre within a converted Grade II listed building, seamlessly blending characterful charm with modern comforts.

Positioned in an exceptionally well-connected location, this impressive second-floor home is just moments away from the award-winning Beacon Park, whilst a wide array of upmarket bars and restaurants, Lichfield Cathedral, major supermarkets, well-regarded schools, and excellent transport links are all within easy reach. Notably, Lichfield City train station is only a short stroll away, offering direct access to Birmingham and surrounding areas. Additionally, Lichfield Trent Valley station is just a brief drive, providing direct services to London Euston in as little as one hour and thirteen minutes.

The apartment features stylish open-plan living, quality finishes throughout, and delightful views of the Franciscan Friary and the Grade II listed former library. A sleek, modern kitchen with integrated appliances is perfectly paired with a spacious and tastefully presented living area. The bedroom is generously sized, complemented by a chic, contemporary shower room.

City centre living, contemporary features and traditional appeal; this gorgeous property simply must be viewed.
