About The Property

Looking for a turn-key home in the heart of Cardigan with flexible living space across three floors and a small, private outdoor area? This well-presented four bedroom terraced house offers modern interiors, a feature fireplace, courtyard garden and an ideal position close to the town centre and Cardigan Bay coastline.

Positioned within the popular market town of Cardigan, this three storey terraced house offers a well thought out layout, modern presentation and a level of flexibility that makes it suitable for a range of buyers, from those searching for a first home through to a family property or holiday let opportunity.

From the front, the property has a traditional appearance in keeping with the surrounding street, while inside the finish feels fresh and up to date. The entrance hallway leads through to the main living space, where the lounge and dining area combine to create a comfortable and practical room for everyday use. A feature stone fireplace provides a focal point and adds a bit of character, while the proportions allow for both seating and dining without compromise.

To the rear, the kitchen has been recently updated and is designed with modern living in mind. Clean lines, good storage and worktop space make it a functional room, while there is also space for breakfast seating. A rear hall leads out to the courtyard, helping to connect the indoor and outdoor areas in a straightforward way.

The first floor offers three bedrooms, all presented to a good standard. These rooms work well as a mix of sleeping accommodation, guest rooms or home office space depending on requirements, with one double and two singles. The family shower room is also located on this floor and has a clean, modern finish with a simple, practical layout with a shower, wash hand basin and toilet.

Details Continued:

On the second floor, the main bedroom takes up the entire level and is a particularly appealing part of the property. With its generous proportions and slightly tucked-away feel, it creates a sense of separation from the rest of the house, making it well suited as a principal bedroom. The shape of the roofline adds character without compromising usability, and there is ample room for furnishings with a useful built in storage to the side.

Externally:

Externally, the property benefits from a small, private courtyard to the rear. It has been designed for low maintenance with AstroTurf, making it an easy space to manage while still offering somewhere to sit out and enjoy the warmer months. It suits the style of the house well, particularly for those looking for outside space without the upkeep of a larger garden.

Additional practical benefits include triple glazed windows to the front and gas central heating, both contributing to comfort and efficiency.

Overall, this is a well-presented home in a convenient location, offering a good balance of character and modern updates. The layout across three floors provides flexibility, while the condition means it is ready for immediate use without the need for major work.

Viewing is recommended to appreciate the space, finish and central position of this property.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE AREA:

The location is a key part of the overall appeal. Cardigan is a well-regarded town in West Wales, offering a range of independent shops, supermarkets, schools and everyday amenities. The coastline of Cardigan Bay is within easy driving distance, with a number of well-known beaches and coastal walks adding to the lifestyle on offer.
