The Property

 AVAILABLE OCTOBER  This well presented spacious three bedroom property is nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac close to Chorlton water park, Transport links and all amenities. The Property has a large private garden to the rear backing onto fields with established shrubs, trees, borders and a tranquil decked seating area leading from the lounge. To the front of the property there is a large garden with stunning Blossom Tree, established hedges and gated driveway for one car. On entrance to the stylishly decorated property there is a good sized hallway with separate bathroom and WC. The lounge has ample room for dining and has french doors which open to a decked seating area in the private garden. The modern kitchen has integrated appliances, large window overlooking the garden and a rear external door. To the first floor there are three double bedrooms with the main having the full length of the property with two large windows. This beautiful home is spacious and light throughout and one not to be missed!
